

Stewardship of Ministry 2011-2012

A Stewardship Message from Father Pat...July 10, 2011

“Are we sharing our God-given talents?”

We are all given gifts and talents from God; using those gifts is a loving expression of our commitment to the Lord. As Christian stewards, we are responsible for sharing our time and talents to help build the Body of Christ.

The many ministries of Saint Thomas More Church continue to be successful because of the dedication of our volunteers. In early August, parishioners will receive a Stewardship of Ministry renewal packet in the mail. Please pray about how you can use the gifts with which God has blessed you. There are many liturgical and non-liturgical opportunities available, whether you have plenty of time to share or just a little time to spare. Our commitment to parish ministry is not only needed and deeply appreciated, but is an essential part of living life as good stewards of our Catholic faith.

More information will be provided in next week's bulletin.

“Let us not grow tired of doing good, for in due time we shall reap our harvest, if we do not give up.”
